Series: Holiday Hope
Week: Boundaries

CONNECT: When you hear the word "boundaries," what comes to mind from your own experience?

READ: Genesis 1:29-30 NIV – 29 Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. 30 And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground--everything that has the breath of life in it--I give every green plant for food." And it was so.
Genesis 2:16-17 NIV – 16 And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; 17 but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die."

STUDY:
1. Why do people often view God's boundaries as restrictions rather than blessings?

2. What is one area where God's boundaries have protected or blessed your life?

3. Where in your life are you resisting a boundary that God may actually be giving you as a blessing?

4. Which "one another" command do you most need to practice right now in a specific relationship?

5. What boundary do you need to communicate clearly, calmly, and consistently to better honor God and love others?

APPLY: Ask God this week: "Where am I living outside Your guardrails?" Then take one step back toward His boundary in obedience.
