

Questions for Community Groups from “Waiting on God in Hope”
Romans 8:20-25

1. Is there anything that stuck out for you from the message on Hope?

2. How do you typically handle waiting?

3. How is our cultural understanding of Hope different from the Biblical perspective of Hope?

4. Thinking in Biblical terms, is there anything that you are:

In God, waiting for?

In God, hoping for?

5 What do we “Already” have in Jesus?

What do we “Not Yet” possess today?

6. The word liminal comes from the Latin word “limen”, meaning threshold – any point or place of entering or beginning. A liminal space is the time between the ‘what was’ and the ‘next.’ It is a place of transition, waiting, and not knowing. (Graduation Ceremonies Bar or Bat Mitzvahs, Retirement parties Weddings); Liminal space is where so much transformation can take place, if we learn to wait and let it form us.

Have you ever been (Or you now) in a “Liminal Space”?

What did/are you learning about yourself?

What did/are you learning about God?

7. How do we access the “gift” of Hope and develop the “virtue” of hope in our daily lives and perspectives?
